

This Collector Agreement is entered into at the time of purchase by and between Soho Kids and the purchaser of the Soho Kids non-fungible token.

1. Ownership.

Soho Kids is a trait-generative avatar project of 5000 characters created by Soho Kids as non-fungible tokens that are stored on the Cardano blockchain. Soho Kids owns the name and mark "Soho Kids" and other intellectual property and proprietary technologies that constitute the brand image by which Soho Kids is known to the public. Soho Kids' intellectual property and proprietary technologies, include, but are not limited to: Soho Kids' logos, trademarks, product names, service marks, and copyrightable works, including but not limited to content of its internet sites, user interface, and generative traits.

2. Collector Rights.

The collector is entitled to a worldwide non-exclusive, assignable and perpetual license to display the NFT solely for commercial purposes, given that such display right may only be assigned to a subsequent collector of the NFT simultaneously with the transfer of ownership of the NFT and this Agreement.

3. Restrictions.

The collector agrees to not use the purchased Soho Kids in any manner that depicts or encourages illegal acts, or involves violence, pornography, racism and/or obscenity.
